

Arriving in Todi, what a pleasant surprise,
we were greeted by drummers and men in tights
What a sight for tired eyes!

Exciting moments were had there by all,
including three of our pilgrims
who took a nasty fall.
And two others who got stuck
in an ancient shower stall.

In Orvieto, we did go to Mass,
but the nun said, “No, you shall not pass!”
Liz Lev gave a great tour to awes and sighs.
It happened to be of the Duomo—to T and Kelly’s surprise.

On to Assisi for Francis and Clare
the hermitage was so beautiful,
some pilgrims decided to stay there.

Many lessons were learned on the ride
from Umbria to Tuscany, including “Let go of your baggage,”
and “Man, can forty-five women pee!”

Up and down the hills of Siena,
from church to church and store to store,
we were blessed by the glory
of a Eucharistic miracle and Jesus to adore.

From the Green Heart to the Tuscan Hills to the city of Rome
Our hearts will be sad when you all leave for home!

Know of our love, wherever you go, both Kelly and mine.
We hope to see you on our next WINE and Shrine!
